Who we are & how we can help

Did you have to leave your home? Are you a displaced person, entitled to be granted asylum, or entitled to subsidiary protection? We offer advice and support for your social integration in Carinthia, assist with everyday questions and health concerns.

We assist you with official applications, check your social security entitlements, and accompany you to authorities, when needed.

We offer help with finding housing and connect you with integration programs in Carinthia.

Our free consultations are available in the following languages: German, English, Ukrainian, Russian, and Arabic - in person, in writing, and over the phone.

Please bring your registration certificate (Meldezettel) as well as the card for displaced persons / the convention passport - the card for persons entitled to be granted asylum / the card for persons entitled to subsidiary protection to your appointment!
